

Improve Reading Skills With Guided Reading Materials

Known for innovative and effective learning solutions that meet the needs of each individual student, Rigby guided reading materials are now available from Follett Library Resources. Rigby offers a wide variety of products and programs that are designed to enhance literacy skills for grades K-8 using the guided reading approach.

Rigby®

 HOUGHTON MIFFLIN HARCOURT

When you purchase Rigby guided reading materials from Follett Library Resources, you'll benefit from:

- A local Account Manager who will help you determine which Rigby program is right for your school.
- Our Web site, titlewave.com, where you can easily find and purchase additional guided reading books from other educational and trade publishers.
- Free shipping on your order.

For more information, contact your local Account Manager at 888.511.5114

FOLLETT
LIBRARY RESOURCES
A Follett Corporation Company

Find Rigby Reading Programs on titlewave.com

Choose from these Rigby Programs:

Flying Colors

Leveled reading program that offers more than 200 engaging fiction and highly visual nonfiction titles. Builds strategic reading and writing skills with step-by-step lesson plans. Explicitly supports small-group, strategic reading.

Focus

Leveled reading, writing and language program built upon science and social studies content that targets early, emergent and fluent readers.

Focus Forward

Intervention program for students in grades 3-8. Builds foundational reading and writing skills. Designed for students reading two or three levels below grade level.

Gigglers

Chapter books that use humor to captivate reluctant and struggling readers in grades 3-5. High-interest, low-readability text supports struggling readers. Engage students and help them build reading competence and confidence.

InfoQuest

Combination of Web resources with nonfiction leveled text (levels N-Y) using illustrations and photographs with a focus on science and social studies, targets grades 3-6.

InStep

Leveled reading program with dual instructional paths helps English language learners and struggling readers move on to grade-level reading proficiency by providing effective reading strategies. Focuses on reading skills, developmental phonics and language skills.

Lighthouse

Guided fiction and nonfiction reading resources for bookrooms and classroom libraries, leveled to Fountas and Pinnell levels B-M. Includes extensive teaching notes with attached reading record for each title, cross-curricular activities and blackline masters. Provides notes for guided reading or small-group instruction.

Literacy

Helps struggling-to-accelerated-level K-3 students develop reading proficiency through whole class and targeted small group instruction. Using a variety of reading and writing approaches, fosters language and literacy growth and provides explicit and direct comprehension, phonics and word structure skills instruction within the context of authentic literacy experiences.

Literacy By Design

Represents a comprehensive reading and writing program with both fiction and nonfiction books using differentiated instruction and leveled texts.

On Deck

Specifically written to provide high-interest books for the struggling reader. Provides a wide range of material for intermediate students. Targeted for independent reading.

PM

Multiple series of leveled texts that use real story lines. Systematically builds high-frequency words to develop reading skills. Large collection of titles provides unparalleled variety and instructional scope.

Sails

Titles focus on visual literacy using a variety of language experiences and written forms to engage students from grades K-5.