The Arts

Brinker International Foundation

Description: Our main areas of giving are health, social services, arts and education, and diversity.

Eligibility: Public or Private Schools, Public Libraries

Award Amount: Based on the project and the request

Requirements: Brinker International's Charitable Committee must have the following information from organizations requesting donations. This information must be submitted on the organization's official letterhead.

- The exact amount requested and the specific purpose for the donation briefly summarized on 1-2 typewritten pages.
- The request should detail how the donations will be used.
- Information about your organization, including proof of 501(c)(3) status and sources of funding.
- Information, if any, concerning past or current involvement of Brinker International employees with the organization.
- We may also come back and ask for the organization's current Board of Directors, including their business and civic affiliations, as well as the organization's recent financial statements. Requests that do not meet the requirements of the Brinker Charitable Committee will not be considered.

States: All

Application Opens: Ongoing

Ezra Jack Keats Minigrant

Description: Created by the children's book author and illustrator, the Ezra Jack Keats Foundation. Come up with a creative program that can be enacted by students with their teacher or librarian. Programs funded in the past have included:

- an ongoing pen pal project bringing together disparate communities
- an art project culminating in an art show, a mural, or a quilt
- bookmaking or creating and performing a puppet show
- an intergenerational journal or activity

Regard these programs as examples of the direction your project might take...we encourage new ideas.

Eligibility: Public schools and public libraries are eligible for the EJK Minigrant Program. Preschool Head Start programs are also invited to apply for Minigrants. Only public organizations are eligible – private, parochial and charter schools should not apply.

Award Amount: $500.00

Requirements: EJK Minigrants were designed to make the most of the time teachers and librarians spend with their students. If a program is innovative, imaginative and inspiring, we will be interested in considering it for support. In such cases we will consider funding the purchase of books, equipment and materials. To be considered, the proposed program must be supported solely by the Ezra Jack Keats Foundation.

States: We fund institutions and programs within the United States, including Puerto Rico and Guam.

Application Deadline: 11:59 p.m., March 31, of each year. Notification of status will be emailed to everyone by the end of May.

National Endowment for the Arts – Art Works Grant

Description: We support three types of projects:

- Direct Learning Grants to increase student knowledge and skills in the arts. Projects must provide extended participatory learning that engages students with accomplished artists and arts educators, align with either national or state arts education standards, and rigorously assess student learning.
- Professional Development Grants to deepen knowledge and strengthen the practice of educators and/or civic leaders who engage students in arts learning. Projects must provide meaningful opportunities for participants to experience the arts, provide in-depth learning over a sustained period of time, and measure the impact of the professional development experience.
- Collective Impact Grants to ensure that all students across entire schools, school districts, and/or states – in communities of all sizes – participate in the arts over time. Eligibility: Nonprofit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3), U.S. organizations; units of state or local government; or federally recognized tribal communities or tribes may apply.

Award Amount: $10,000 to $100,000

Requirements: Applicants should consider what role their proposed project plays within this system, and how their project impacts students. Funded projects will utilize and test innovative strategies, or scale up proven methodologies, for increasing access to arts education for more students

States: All

Application Deadline: February and July

W.K. Kellogg Foundation

Description: We want to partner with families, schools and communities in making a difference in young children's learning and development. To do so, we support community-based family engagement efforts that empower parents, caregivers and families as leaders in children's development, recognizing that this is a shared responsibility with schools and communities. We seek to improve the quality of both teaching and learning through leadership and professional development in which educators receive the support and training they need to deliver high-quality learning opportunities for all students. This includes working with child care providers, schools and teacher preparation programs to create safe, positive environments that are content rich, results-driven and culturally meaningful and relevant.

Eligibility: Non-Profit and Public Government Agencies

Award Amount: Dependent on the scope of the project

Requirements: Once we receive your completed online application, an automated response, which includes your WKKF reference number, will be sent to you acknowledging its receipt. ALSC/Candlewick Press "Light the Way: Outreach to the Underserved" Grant

Description: The ALSC/Candlewick Press "Light the Way: Outreach to the Underserved" Grant was formed in honor of Newbery Medalist and Geisel Honoree author Kate DiCamillo, and the themes represented in her books. The award consists of a $3,000 grant to assist a library in conducting exemplary outreach to underserved populations through a new program or an expansion of work already being done. Special population children may include those who have learning or physical differences, those who are speaking English as a second language, those who are in a non-traditional school environment, those who are in non-traditional family settings (such as teen parents, foster children, children in the juvenile justice system, and children in gay and lesbian families), and those who need accommodation service to meet their needs.

Eligibility: ALA membership is a prerequisite for this grant.

Award Amount: $3,000

Requirements: The ALSC Library Service to Special Population Children and Their Caregivers Committee will select the winner of this award based on an application process. Special population children may include those who have learning or physical differences, those who speak English as a second language, those who are in a non-traditional school environment, those who live in foster care settings, those who are in the juvenile justice system, those who live in gay and lesbian families, those who have teen parents, and those who need accommodation service to meet their needs.

Amber Brown Grant for Guest Author Visits

Description: This grant is offered in the spirit of Paula's joyous approach to life, and we hope that every school that uses it to bring an author or illustrator to speak to their students will make that day a true celebration--a celebration of books, of literacy, of children, of life.

Eligibility: Any school with the desire and commitment to enrich their curriculum with a guest author or illustrator is eligible to apply. However, this grant is primarily focused on bringing an author or illustrator to a school that cannot or has not been able to afford this privilege.

Award Amount: Two schools will be rewarded with an all expense paid visit by a well respected children's author or illustrator. The chosen schools will also receive a $250 stipend to assist in creating this memorable event to celebrate reading, learning, and children's literature and $250 worth of books by the visiting author. Additionally, one runner up school will be selected and rewarded with books valued at $250.00.

Requirements: Applicants must fill out the application in its entirety and submit it before the deadline (see below). All applications must include a statement of support from your principle.

States: All

Application Opens: Applications may be submitted between November 1st and April 15th.

Ezra Jack Keats Minigrant

Description: Created by the children's book author and illustrator, the Ezra Jack Keats Foundation. Come up with a creative program that can be enacted by students with their teacher or librarian. Programs funded in the past have included:

- an ongoing pen pal project bringing together disparate communities
- a multicultural portrait project
- an art project culminating in an art show, a mural, or a quilt
- bookmaking
- creating and performing a puppet show

Eligibility: Public schools and public libraries are eligible for the EJK Minigrant Program. Preschool Head Start programs are also invited to apply for Minigrants. Only public organizations are eligible – private, parochial and charter schools should not apply.

Award Amount: $500.00

Requirements: EJK Minigrants were designed to make the most of the time teachers and librarians spend with their students. If a program is innovative, imaginative and inspiring, we will be interested in considering it for support. In such cases we will consider funding the purchase of books, equipment and materials. To be considered, the proposed program must be supported solely by the Ezra Jack Keats Foundation.

States: We fund institutions and programs within the United States, including Puerto Rico and Guam.

Application Deadline: 11:59 p.m., March 31, of each year. Notification of status will be emailed to everyone by the end of May.

National Leadership Grants for Libraries

Description: Sparks Grants are small grants for rapid prototyping and evaluating of specific innovations in the ways libraries operate and the services librarians provide resulting in new tools, products, services, or organizational practices. You may propose activities or approaches that involve risk, but the project results – be they success, failure, or a combination thereof – must offer valuable information or insight to the library or archives fields, promise an impact beyond the applicant's institution and provide the potential for improvement in the ways libraries and archives serve their communities. Findings about new processes are as valuable as new tools and services. Projects are required to submit a short white paper, which IMLS will post and share publicly. Additional mechanisms for widely reaching and building awareness of and interest in the findings are encouraged. Sparks Grants are for periods of one year only.

Eligibility: Eligible libraries include public libraries, elementary and secondary school libraries, college and university libraries and research libraries.

Award Amount: $10,000 to $25,000

Requirements: As part of the President's E-Government initiative, the federal government developed Grants.gov (link is external), a single Web site for organizations to electronically find and apply for competitive grant opportunities from all 26 of the federal grant-making agencies.

States: Must be located in one of the fifty states of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau

Application Deadline: September and February

Recycling for Cash

Cartridges for Kids

Description: Cartridges 4 Kids is a recognized leader in designing award-winning and unique environmentally smart fundraising programs. In 2000, they introduced the Cartridges 4 Kids Printer Cartridge and Cell-Phone Fundraising Program. This award-winning fundraising program encourages the community to recycle most cell phones, inkjet & laser cartridges, laptops, MP3s, PDAs and tablets/eReaders/notebooks through the Cartridges 4 Kids Program. This in turn helps to generate much needed funds for the benefit of Schools and Non-profit Organizations and at the same time, reduces the amount of recyclable material that enters our landfills. Participation in the C4K Program is free, and there is absolutely no selling involved. The Cartridges 4 Kids Program pays top dollar - up to $10.00 for empty printer cartridges and up to $25.00 for cell phones. By participating in the program, your organization can expect to earn up to $1,500.00 in its first year alone! Once enrolled...

Fab School Labs Contest

Description: We're on a mission to get students excited about science, technology, engineering and mathematics – better known as STEM. But for that to be possible, students need access to the latest learning tools and technologies and unfortunately, too many of today's technology labs and science classrooms are not making the grade.

Eligibility: Individuals who: 1) are employed as an official member of the administration or faculty (for example, a teacher, administrator, or department chair) of a public middle school or charter school located in the United States that serves students in grades sixth through eighth

Award Amount: Five grants of up to $100,000 available to public middle schools for a fabulous school lab makeover.

Requirements: Tell us your vision for a dream lab makeover, share a video about your current classroom, and if you are one of up to 25 finalists, invite your local community to vote for your video to help you win. Be creative and get ready to make your dream STEM lab a reality.

NEA Student Achievement Grants

Description: The NEA Foundation provides NEA members with grants to improve the academic achievement of students in U.S. public schools and public higher education institutions in any subject area(s). The proposed work should engage students in critical thinking and problem solving that deepen their knowledge of standards-based subject matter. The work should also improve students' habits of inquiry, self-directed learning, and critical reflection. Funding preference will be given to projects that incorporate STEM and/or global learning.

Eligibility: Public school educators in grades PreK-12 and Public school education support professionals. All applicants must be current members of the National Education Association.

Award Amounts: $2,000 or $5,000. The budget submitted with your application must account for the full grant amount. We do not award partial grants. You must also plan to spend all of the funds within 12 months of the notification date.

Requirements: Grant applicants must be NEA members. While Student Achievement Grant funds may be used for resource materials, supplies, equipment, or technology, the proposed work and related materials should facilitate the development of students' critical thinking and problem-solving skills. The proposed materials must play a central role in deepening student knowledge and habits of inquiry.

Technology for Teaching

Best Buy Community Grant

Description: As technology becomes more ingrained in our society, Best Buy knows it is increasingly necessary for youth to develop the 21st-century skills that will set them up for future career success. Yet, we also know that a participation gap exists. Too many teens have little or no access to technology and, as a result, they fall behind their peers. Examples of program activities include:

- Computer programming
- Digital imaging (photography, graphic design, videography)
- Music production
- Robotics
- Gaming and mobile app development

Requirements: Organization must provide direct services to build technology skills in teens, ages 13-18.

States: All - Location must be within 50 miles of a Best Buy store, Best Buy Mobile location, Best Buy Distribution Center, Best Buy Service Center or Best Buy's corporate campus. To find store locations, visit www.bestbuy.com/storelocator.

Eligibility: Best Buy seeks applications from 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations and public agencies that have tax-exempt status and are giving teens access to opportunities through technology.

Award Amount: The average grant amount is $5,000 and will not exceed $10,000.

Application Deadline: July 1

Urban Poverty

Michael and Susan Dell

Description: We seek to fund projects that directly serve or impact children living in urban poverty, particularly in the areas of education, childhood health and family economic stability (including microfinance). In working to create lasting social change our philanthropic approach is simple: identify the best individuals and organizations working on an issue, and then help ensure they grow and scale effectively.

Eligibility: Before starting an Online Grant Proposal you will be asked a series of brief questions about your organization and proposed project. The questions have been designed to determine if your organization and project meet basic eligibility requirements for Michael & Susan Dell Foundation funding. Answering the eligibility requirements questions should take less than five minutes.

Award Amounts: Michael & Susan Dell Foundation has approved grants ranging from $500 to several million dollars. As a guideline, the foundation generally will not fund more than 25% of a project's budget or more than 10% of an organization's total annual operating expenses.

Requirements: Foundation staff will review the Online Grant Proposal and respond via e-mail within six weeks. If we find the proposed project to be aligned with the mission of the foundation, you will be asked to complete a formal Grant Application for funding.
